1	In bar chart of proposed road and land schedule uploaded as additional documents in online Part-I and also in the hard copy of the proposal the area proposed for diversion is shown as 0.525 ha. which may be corrected.	Formerly only the area of forest land for Road 750 m long and 7 m wide (0.525 ha) was taken and erroneously 0.087 ha for muck disposal was left.
2	In all the documents in hard copy which also includes Land schedule Bar chart Part-I & Part-II Site Inspection Report of DFO Length and width of road etc. the area proposed for diversion has been mentioned as 0.525. State Govt. may send revised hard copy after correcting the area proposed for diversion as 0.612 ha. after including 0.087 ha. area proposed for muck dumping and also correcting purposewire/component wise break up.	Now all documents of the proposal containing error have been revised for (0.525 ha + 0.087 ha =) 0.612 ha and the revised hard copy has been sent to Nodal office by this office's letter no. 2708/13C dated 13/09/2017 and the corrected documents have been uploaded online at respective Sections in Form A Part-I.
3	In this case 750 m long road is proposed on forest land for which 91 trees are proposed to be felled. State Govt. may explain necessity of the road also indicating whether two villages proposed to be connected with this road are already having road connectivity or not.	This Road is essential need of the villages Bhatwari Sunar and Dubadkhu (Total 527 people) which are still not connected by a road link. Out of 91 Trees to be felled 68 trees are 10-20 dia. Hence the case may be considered in the public welfare.
