This is a site specific existing mineral based project; hence no other alternate sites are envisaged. The ML area has been chosen due to the following:

1. Availability of good Bauxite Ore deposits, the main raw material for manufacture of aluminum in the proximity.

2. Availability of adequate land, water, power and other infrastructure facilities for mineral Bauxite based industry.

3. Availability of social infrastructure, manpower and transportation facilities.