The plaintiffs have submitted that the joint property of the plaintiffs defendants and others co-shares and no partition of the property has yet taken place between the parties only and property is still joint between the parties. Defendants have threatening to alienate specific portion of the suit land and also threatening to raise construction and superstructure over the specific portion of the suit property and also intend to excavate the land by removing the soil or by digging the earth and also have negotiated with the other person to sell away the specific valuable portion of the land. Plaintiffs requested to the defendants not to commit the above said illegalities. But instead of hearing the requests of the plaintiffs the defendants are threatening to alienate the specific portion of the suit property and to excavate the land by removing the soil or by digging the earth and also threatening to raise construction superstructure over the front portion of the land in suit. The plaintiff defendants succeeds in their illegal acts and designs the plaintiffs shall suffer an irreparable loss and injury. No suit between the parties to the suit or the parties under whom they or any of them claim litigating on the same ground has been previously instituted or still pending nor it was decided by a court. Afore mentioned facts have thus, given a cause of action to the plaintiffs to file the present suit against the defendants. The cause of action arose when the defendants threatening the plaintiffs to alienate selling mortgaging transferring disposing off or creating a sort of charge in manner of any specific portion of the land and digging the earth and excavating the land by removing the soil. Hence the present suit as well as stay application. 3. upon notice defendants no 1 to 3 appeared through counsel and defendants no 1 to 3 filed written statement and reply to stay application taking preliminary objections that the suit is barred u/s 41 of the specific relief act. Relief of injunction is a discretionary relief who comes in the year 1999-99 and the same is being run by the defendants no 1 and 2. The plaintiffs have no locus standi to file the present suit. The suit of the plaintiff is not maintainable in the present from. There is no joint status between the parties to the suit. The suit of the plaintiff is liable to be dismissed. Denying other averments, prayer for dismissal of application taking preliminary objections that suit is not maintainable - plaintiffs has no locus standi to file the present suit and hence the suit of the plaintiffs is liable to be dismissed being without any cause of action. Parties to the present suit are co-shares no stay can be granted against the answering defendant being co-owner. Karam singh & anr vs Present : sh. P.K.Garg advocate counsel for plaintiffs. Sh. M.M.Rattan advocate counsel for defendants no 1 to 3 Sh. Gurdeep singh adv for defendant no 4	Gurbachan singh & ors Sh. M.M.Rattan advocate counsel for plaintiffs. Sh. Gurdeep singh adv for defendant no 4
Order 1. This order of mine shall dispose of an application under order 39 rule 1 & 2 cpc filed by plaintiffs. 2. The plaintiffs have submitted that the joint property of the plaintiffs defendants and others co-shares and no partition of the property has yet taken place between the parties orally and property is still joint between the parties. Some portion of the suit property adjoining to the doraha Ludhiana main road and is ten times more valuable than the land situated on other side. Defendants have threatening to raise construction and superstructure over the specific portion of the suit property and also intend to excavate the land by removing the soil or by digging the earth and also hand have negotiated with the other person to sell away the specific valuable portion of the land. Plaintiffs requested to the defendants not to commit the above said illegalities. But instead of hearing the requests of the plaintiffs the defendants are threatening to plaintiffs to alienate the specific portion of the suit property and to excavate the land by removing the soil or by digging the earth and also threatening to raise construction superstructure over the front portion of the land in suit. The plaintiff defendants succeeds in their illegal acts and designs the plaintiffs shall suffer an irreparable loss and injury. No suit between the parties to the suit or the parties under whom they or any of them claim litigating on the same ground has been previously instituted or still pending nor it was decided by a court. Afore mentioned facts have thus given a cause of action to the plaintiffs to file the present suit against the defendants. The cause of action arose when the defendants threatening the plaintiffs to alienate selling mortgaging transferring disposing off creating a sort of charge in manner of any specific portion of the land and digging the earth and excavating the land by removing the soil. Hence the present suit as well as stay application. 3. upon notice defendants no 1 to 3 appeared through counsel and defendants no 1 to 3 filed written statement and reply to stay application taking preliminary objections that the suit is barred u/s 41 of the specific relief act. Suit for injunction is not maintainable. Plaintiffs earlier also filed a civil suit bearing no 341/10 titled as 1. Rajinder singh 2. Karam singh vs 1. Gurpinder singh 2. Gurbachan singh & swaran kaur fir the grant of permanent injunction restraining the defendants from alienating or chnaging the existing position of the land situated with the revenue estate c. deep nagar tahsil payal dist Ludhiana. Relief of injunction is a discretionary relief who comes in the court with soil hands and tainted conduct is not entitle for the discretionary relief. The predecessor of the answering defendants got constructed a house about 60 years back. The answering defendants also got constructed a dhaba in the year 1998-99 and the same is being run by the defendants no 1 and 2. The plaintiffs have no locus standi to file the present suit. The suit of the plaintiff is liable to be dismissed. Denying other averments, prayer for dismissal of application was prayef for. 4. upon notice defendant no 4 appeared through counsel and defendants no 4 filed writteb statement and reply to stay application taking preliminary objections that suit is not maintainable. plaintiffs has no locus standi to file the present suit and as such the suit filed by the plaintiff is liable to be dismissed with costs. No cause of action to the plaintiffs to file the present suit and hence the suit of the plaintiffs is liable to be dismissed being without any cause of action. Parties to the present suit are co-sharers no stay can be granted against the answering defendant being co-owner. Plaintiffs have not come to the court with clean hand and suppresses material facts from this court. Deying other averments prayer for dismissal of application was prayef for. 5. I have heard the id counsel for the parties and perused the record with their able assistance. The parties are co-owners of the suit property counsel for the plaintiff has submitted that defendant should be restrained from raising any construction till the partition is effected by metes and bounds. On the other hand counsel for the defendant has submitted that every co-owner is owner of every inch of the land of the joint property and suit for injunction is not maintainable and remedy if any is suit for partition. Counsel for the plaintiff placed reliance on:- 1. Sukhwant singh & ors vs garja singh & ors, 2013(4) civil court cases 614(P&H) 2. Balbir singh vs lambir singh 2004(3) civil court cases 129 (P&H) 3. Pritam singh & ors vs chanan singh & ors 2003(1) civil court cases 426 (P&H) 4. Awadh naitain vs livth district judge, jaunput & ors 2002(1) civil court cases 347 (allahbad high court) 5. Ram singh vs livth add. District judge jaunpur & ors 2002(1) civil court cases 347(Allahabad high court). Counsel for the plaintiff reliance on:- 1. Pahalwan chand vs hans raj & ors (P & H) 2012 2. Jai karan Sharma vs ram kumar (P & H) 2008 3. Kishan singh vs sucha singh (P & H) 2007 4. Gurdial singh vs harmajit singh & ors (P & H) 2010 5. Amar singh vs dr. tejinder singh & ors (P & H) 2010 It is to be noted that suit for injunction is not maintainable against the co-owner and the application remedy available to the co-owner is suit for partition. Co-owner in possession of a separate parcel under as arrangement can not be disturbed except by partition. In the present suit, the possession of defendants is not represented by a separate khatauni and thereby, it can be presumed that defendants are not in possession of the portion of property where the construction is being carried out. Perusal of the judicial file shows that plaintiff has already initiated the partition proceedings in the court of ac first grade and interest of the justice requires that the subject matter of the suit must be preserved so that partition may not become ineffective. As such the application in hand stands allowed. 6. Nothing herein contain shall affect the merits of the case. Gurmehtab singh Civil judge junior division Payal UID .
