Sub: Seeking NOC under Forest Rights Act, 2006 regarding proposed re-route of Raipur – Pondali section of "Haldia Durgapur underground LPG Pipeline Project".

Dear Sir,

IndianOil Corporation Limited (IOCL), a Government of India Undertaking is engaged in Petroleum Refining, Marketing and Transportation of Crude Oil and Petroleum Products through underground cross-country pipelines. IOCL operates a network of about 15,000 km pipelines carrying Crude Oil, Petroleum Product and LPG. Cross country pipelines are globally recognized as the Safest, Cost Effective, Energy Efficient and Environment Friendly mode of transportation.

IndianOil Corporation Limited (Pipelines Division) intends to re-route the Raipur – Pondali section of "Haldia Durgapur underground LPG Pipeline Project". This stretch lies in Purba Burdwan District in the state of West Bengal. The length of the re-route section is 9.106 km (approx.).

The path of this proposed pipeline is selected after Detailed Engineering Survey through which all possible Alternatives/ Diversion were examined to avoid direct encounter with Forest Land. But, still 262 sqm. (0.0262 hectare) area of forest land is encountered at in Mouza :- Maro – 32 (Block :- Galsi-I, Dist. :- Purba Burdwan). [Details of the forest land is attached as Annexure I]. RoR of the Forest Plot is attached as Annexure – II.

Now for obtaining Forest Clearance regarding forest area diversion, NOC under Forests Right Act, 2006 is required which can only be provided from your esteemed office. A sample copy of previously obtained NOC regarding FRA, for other projects of IOCL is attached as Annexure III.

Since, this being a time bound project of national importance contributing of national prosperity, we solicit your most expeditious action to grant us permission with the above subject matter for laying of the said pipeline.

Thanking you.

Encl: As above.

Sincerely Yours,
