

Site Inspection Report Divisional Forest Officer

(For the forest land to be diverted under FCA 1980)

A proposal has been received by this office from National Highways Authority of India. The under signee has visited the Roadside Protected Forest (PF) area on 23.10.2024. The area proposed for the diversion is 0.978 ha. in Patna Forest Division, Patna.

The area is roadside protected forest and is not vulnerable to any kind of erosion. The area under consideration is neither inside any protected area nor near to any protected area. No wildlife sign (Direct or indirect presence) has been recorded. The area proposed is the bare minimum required area for the execution of the project and there is no alternative route or option. The vegetation density of the area under consideration is 0.4. The project may be considered.

Divisional Forest Officer
Patna Forest Division, Patna