The project requires 0.914 ha of total forest land to be diverted under this division's jurisdiction. It is a multi-village drinking water supply project and has components like water tanks, pipelines and service road. It is a hybrid project and the proposed forest land for diversion falls in Vadeyondahalli village survey no 20. The identified land parcels for diversions were C&D class land transferred from Revenue Department to Forest Department and now figuring in the list of deemed forest land.

The forest land proposed for diversion is bare minimum and is essential for the providing basic drinking water facilities to the villagers. Hence it is recommended for further action required under the Forest Conservation Act, 1980.
