

The land proposed for this project is already under the control of State Farming Corporation of Kerala Ltd. Since the lease period has been expired, we gave a fresh proposal instead of renewal. Hence there is no need of compensatory afforestation