

Present project is Central Govt. project. Hence, land for compensatory afforestation will be identified by the respective DFO. Also it is a central govt. project so land is not required against the forest land diversion.