Note :- * this notification was issued for certain period in the past and are now Being refortified in public interest.

3. (a) Whereas the State Government filed an affidavit dated 21.02.1997 detailing action taken for cessation of all non-forest activities in forest areas (both government and private) in the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India concerning the interim orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Writ Petition (Civil) 202/1995 and a copy of the report regarding the details of government/private forests (name, location, area, legal status), details of areas once forests but presently degraded/denuded and details of plantation (government/private) were enclosed with the affidavit as Annexure-G.

(b) The State Government in the affidavit dated October 1999 submitted that the Expert Committee constituted by the State Government included cultivated/habitation areas closed under Punjab Land Preservation Act, 1900 in the list of forest areas only because these areas were included in the Annual Administrative Reports of the Department as "Areas closed under the PLPA, 1900" and the State Government informed and apprised the Hon'ble Supreme Court of the views and in-principal decision of the State Government to delete all those areas closed under PLPA, 1900 which were under cultivation and habitation from the list of forest areas as contained in Annexure-G enclosed with the aforesaid affidavit dated 21.02.1997.

4. Whereas on 9.9.2005, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in IA No. 976 in IA No. 727 ordered Ministry of Environment & Forests to consider the proposal of the State of Punjab as contained in communication dated 4th July, 2000 in accordance with the rules, procedure and guidelines laid down under Forest Conservation Act, 1980 and the lands to be considered would be such lands which are under bona-fide agricultural use.

ANJAN SINGH
Divisional Forest Officer
Punjab Forest Division

5 (a) Whereas in compliance of the orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 9.9.2005 Ministry of Environment and Forests, Government of India vide F.No. 8-19/2006-FC dated 16th March 2006 conveyed in-principal approval to de-list 65,670.26 ha. Cultivated and habitation areas closed under Punjab Land Preservation Act, 1900 from the list of forest areas for bona-fide agricultural and other livelihood needs subject to the following conditions:

- (i) The State Government shall ensure that no commercial activity is permitted on such de-listed land.
- (ii) The de-listed land shall be used only for bona fide use for agriculture and for sustaining livelihood of the people/owner of the land.
- (iii) A detailed list of such lands showing the land use and status of such land before 25.10.1996 and after that, up to 12.12.1996, shall be furnished to this Ministry' before final approval.

(b) Further, Ministry of Environment and Forests, Government of India vide F. No. 8-19/2006-FC dated 24th July, 2009 conveyed approval for delisting of 55339.95 ha. Cultivated and habitation areas closed under Punjab Land Preservation Act, 1900 subject to the following conditions:

- (i) The State Government shall ensure that no commercial activities are permitted on such de-listed land;
- (ii) The de-listed land shall be used only for bona fide use of agriculture and for sustaining livelihood of the people/owner of the land.
- (iii) If inadvertently, any notified or otherwise forest areas are found to have been included in the present list of areas being considered for de-listing, such areas shall not be deemed to have been de-listed from the list of forest areas of the State.

6. Therefore, keeping in view the above, in as far as areas of villages covered under notification contained in Table-1 above are concerned, the Governor of Punjab is pleased to delist/denotify the villages measuring 7731.02 ha. Cultivated and habitation area of these Villages closed under section 4 PLPA, 1900 comprised in the Khasra numbers as detailed in columns related to the year 1996 in Annexure-A and also from the list of forest areas, as contained in Annexure-G enclosed with the affidavit dated 21.2.1996 of the State Government in Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Writ Petition (Civil) No. 202 of 1996. Consequently, the restrictions, regulations and prohibitions imposed under Section 4 of PLPA, 1900 shall cease to be applicable in the delisted areas as detailed in Annexure 1 of this notification.
