DETAIL NOTE ON THE PROJECT

The project is based on mining from Yamuna river bed as per rules and conditions established Mines and Minerals Act, 1957. Since the river gets annually recharged during season, the uptake of minerals can be done sustainably. The plenty of minor minerals which can easily be lifted from river beds as it will not only meet out the demand of local people but also enhance royalty to the Govt. exchequer of state which otherwise, state is not getting properly due to non auctioning of river beds and consequently the river borne material at vulnerable stretch is being lifted illegally by some people from adjoining state. The project will generate employment of about 2,50,000 man days and serve the nearby villages and its population as detailed below:-
