Sir,

With reference to the above proposal under subject cited wherein the EDS raised by the DIOF (Central) Regional officer Jammu & as per 6th REC held on 16-06-2022 as per the information sought the same have been uploaded pertaining to the User Agency on PARIKASHA Portal as desired in the columns and parts prescribed.

S.No	Information Sought	Reply
1	The information provided under the Muck disposal plan for the area of the individual Muck disposal sites needs to be similar to the break-up of forest land information provided under column B-2 4 of part-I online portal. Furthermore the muck disposal plan must also mention additional precautions that must be taken in the event of muck spills	Corrected & uploaded
2	Site specific intervention for habitat improvement and types/number of structures involved in animal passage plan along with estimates from WLW	A complete plan for safe passage of animal passing has been prepared with provision of all the essential needs (copy Enclosed)
3	Revised Cost-Benefit analysis of the proposal based on the report from the Chief Wildlife Warden as (iii) above.	Corrected & uploaded
4	Revised site inspection report from the DFO emphasizing the details of the endangered Wild animals in the area and the impact of the project on it and recommending the project from both conservation and development point of view	Pertains to Divisional Forest Officer Marwah

Yours faithfully

 Executive Engineer
 PMGSY Division
 Marwah
