

Working Plan Prescription for the forest land proposed for diversion

As per the working plan the proposed diversion area i.e. Compt. No. 322 & 323 of Ramapuram and Valleruvaripalli Beats, Badvel Range is proposed under Degraded Forest Working Circle and Red Sander Improvement Working Circle.

The proposed area of diversion falls under Southern Tropical Dry Deciduous Forests and sub type is Dry Mixed Deciduous Forests with density 0.4 by comprising Chloroxylon swetenia, Bauhinia purpurea, Turnera ulmifolia, Zyzyphus harridan, Hardwickia binata, Acasia Sandra, Anagesious latifolia etc. species including thorny bushes. The area is plain and hilly terrain. The soil is Red soil. The existing forest is scrub type of forest. There are no endangered, rare and unique species of flora and fauna and no defence establishments or any other important monuments.

4/9/2017

Divisional Forest Officer
Proddatur (WL) Division