CONVENTIONAL SYMBOLS

The image shows a page from a handwritten manuscript. The text is written in a dense, cursive script, likely from a historical period. The page is oriented vertically, with the text running from top to bottom. There are several columns of text, with some lines written in a larger, bolder script, possibly indicating a title or a significant section. The paper appears aged and slightly discolored. The handwriting is very close together, filling most of the page area.
