JUSTIFICATION FOR THE TRANSFER OF FOREST LAND

The then Government of Mysore, vide their Order No.: AFD.420 FGL 70, Dt. 2nd March 1972 allotted the present Ashram Land keeping in view, the activities carried out by Late Sri Swami Nirmalananda. On this specific Land where the Late Swamiji lived, He established Ashram and launched several programmes for the benefit of Spiritual Practitioners for the welfare of people in and around the place.

Since the attainment of Maha Samadhi of Sri Swami Nirmalananda, this Ashram has become a Holy place for all the followers from India and abroad.

The present location of Ashram consists of:

1. Sri Swami Nirmalananda's Samadhi,
2. Swamiji's Residence and Library,
3. Temples of Krishna, Ganapati and Vanadevi,
4. Guest Houses

Successor of Sri Swami Nirmalananda, Sri Swami Brahmadev – Managing Trustee of Vishwa Shanthi Nikethana Trust has been continuing all the activities of the Trust in the same Land and Sri Swami Nirmalananda's message is being spread for the World Peace for the last 50 years.

In the light of the above, Vishwa Shanthi Nikethana Trust urges the authorities concerned to transfer same land to carry on the activities.
