

JUSTIFICATION for locating the project in Forest Land

There is a provision of re-diversion of forest land to another user agency of already diverted forest land if the proposed new use / activity is compatible with and does not hinder its use for which the forest land already stands diverted.

This land is none virgin forest land and proposed to be used by us during the construction phase of Sivok-Rangpo Project.