

SITE INSPECTION REPORT

Certified that I have inspected the location of 0.081Ha. forest land in F.sy.No.146 of Tattisar village in Sirsi Taluka proposed for diversion on lease for formation of approach road to private land for proposed stone crusher unit on 25-06-2015

The proposed area is having tree growth of species like Acacia Auriculiform, Acacia mangium Neral, Kaval, kindal, Matti, Challe.

The tree Species which are existing in the proposed road are Acacia-71, Manjium-03, Neral-2, Kindal-3, Matti-1, Kaval-1, Challe-3, Total:84 Plants are existing in the proposed area.

There are no endangered fauna in the said area.

No protected archeological/heritage site/defense establishment or any other important monuments are located in the area.

The requirement of forest land as proposed by user agency is barest minimum and there is no suitable non forest alternated land available for the purpose.

There is no violation of Forest Conservation Act, 1980 in proposed area.

Sirsi,

Date: 16 - 7 - 2015

Deputy Conservator of Forests,
Sirsi Division, Sirsi.