

FIELD INSPECTION NOTES OF Dr.K.SURYANARAYANA, IFS., CHIEF CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS, GUNTUR

* * *

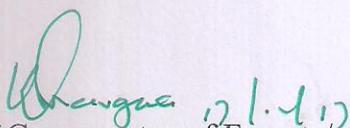

Motadaka RF inspected on 17-12-2017:

Motadaka Reserve Forest is situated in Motadaka Village of Tadikonda Mandal in Compartment No. 125 of Endroy Beat, Mangalagiri Section of Guntur Range in Guntur Division. The Geo-Graphical details of the Motadaka Reserve Forest are as follows.

Latitude: 16.47725

Longitude: 80.39471

The forest block is Dry Deciduous Type thorny scrub forest. The hillocks have big size boulders and interspersed with some bushy growth exists. The gradient is moderate to steep. The density is 0.2 to 0.3 and the soil is highly bouldrey and rocky. Wildlife was not noticed. There is no natural water source, spring and the ground water table is very low. The main plant species are Albizzia amara, Prosopis juliflora, Acacia leucifloea and lot of regeneration of Azadirachta indica.

Chief Conservator of Forests/
Conservator of Forests,
Guntur Circle, Guntur