

FIELD INSPECTION NOTES OF Dr.K.SURYANARAYANA, IFS., CHIEF CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS, GUNTUR.

* * *

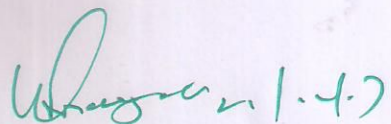

Kondaveedu RF inspected on 21-12-2017:

Kondaveedu Reserve Forest is situated within the limits of the Guntur Municipal Corporation and approximately 7.00Kms from Guntur town. The Geographical details of the Kondaveedu Reserve Forest are as follows.

Latitude: 16.24004

Longitude: 80.30939

The Kondaveedu RF it is mainly dry thorny scrub forest. In the valley some growth of Bamboo is seen and in flat areas only some soil of sandy loam quality can be seen. Big boulders and bouldry soil is mainly the main component of the hillocks. The density is varying from 0.2 mainly to 0.3 in the small areas. There is no significant wildlife seen or reported by the accompanying staff. The main species are Acacia leucofloea, Prosopis juliflora, Zizyphus xylopyrus, Gyrocarpus jacquinii, Manilkara hexandra, Azadirachta indica, Albizzia amara, Carissa spinarum, Euphorbia triquitrum and Grewia rotundifolia.

Chief Conservator of Forests/
Conservator of Forests,
Guntur Circle, Guntur.