

SITE INSPECTION REPORT

Inspected the site on 19.03.2016 The site is situated in an area for which the vegetative over density is 0.3. No tree are found in the area. The site is not a part of any National Park, Wildlife Sanctuary, biosphere reserve or a part of such area which is reserved for specific object of development of forestry and research. No endangered species of flora or fauna is found in the area.

The proposal in question may be approved under forest (Conservation) Act, 1980 by the competent authority.

Divisional Forest Officer,

Gopalganj Forest Division, Gopalganj.