

Justification

Construction Sub Power Station for Satdharu Medium Irrigation Project in Damoh Division has been proposed in 0.980 ha forest land in Damoh Division by Water Resources Department Damoh. In this scheme for storage water for supplying there is proposed a Sub Power Station and approach road and water supply pipeline Two Line with Electrical line total 0.980 ha forest land. After construction Sub Power Station It will water for pressurized pipe system micro irrigation in Damoh District and Nearby Many villages. Many villages do not have not proper irrigation water for rabi and kharif crops. After Construction Sub Power Station for Satdharu Medium Irrigation Project that would be provide Water or irrigation for rabi and kharif crops and also will give better living hood for rural people. During the Construction Sub Power Station and approach road and water supply pipeline in District Damoh will provide the Employment for people

Executive Engineer
Water Resources Division Damoh