

JUSTIFICATION CERTIFICATE

The said location has been selected duly considering the site specificity that proposed approach road, water pipe line & power line passing through Narimogaru Reserve Forest, Shanthigodu village, Puttur Range Mangaluru Forest Division. The lift irrigation scheme near Veermangala investigation work was taken up, the proposed scheme is located on left side of Kumaradhara river of west flowing river basin the main occupation of the above villages is agriculture. Though the village is situated on the river bank, the farmers are depending on rain fall for agriculture. The scheme is proposed to irrigate 130.00 acres of Veeramangala and surrounding area. The related movement of men and material along with the existing road of said location, the same has been depicted in the land use map enclosed. There is no other alternate approach to the site for the intake, jackwell, pipeline, proposed approach road, power cable line and water tank.

Date : 09-02-2018

Place: Mangaluru

(Executive Engineer)

Minor Irrigation and Ground water development Division, Mangaluru-01.