

Justification for locating the Project in forest land

As there is no land available other than forest road, and also remaining part of the same pipe line is going through same forest road, forest road is the only option available for laying Irrigation water supply pipe line. Also, no flora or fauna will be affected as this pipe line is to be laid through an earthen forest road.

Assistant Engineer
Minor Irrigation Section
Nilambur