

iv) Justification for locating project in forest area:

The road had to pass through forest (khasmal) land as the lands adjacent to the proposed project sites are all forest land and as such the alignment of roads in the forest land was inevitable. However, the minimum unavoidable forest land only has been proposed to be diverted for the construction purpose and this alignment is the best alignment.