This is a detailed topographic map of a region in India, likely in the state of Madhya Pradesh. The map is oriented with North at the top. It features a grid of latitude and longitude lines. The Jowilla River is a prominent feature, flowing from the north towards the south. Several forested areas are marked, including the Maikala Reserved Forest, Shahdol R.F., and Burhar R.F. The map uses various colors to represent different types of terrain and vegetation, such as green for forests and brown for hilly or mountainous areas. Numerous small settlements and villages are indicated by red dots and labels. The map also shows various roads and railways. The overall appearance is that of a detailed survey map used for administrative or planning purposes.
