Chapter – 11Infrastructural Projects incl. roads, railway lines, border roads, critical utility infrastructure development, residential / building construction

11.1 Infrastructure projects requiring diversion of forest land under the FCA, 1980 fall under following categories, (in addition to the General Approval granted by the Central government for the specified public utility services and critical/strategic defence infrastructure for the specified periods):

- (i) Road Widening and construction, including widening in existing RoW.
- (ii) Construction of railway lines including conversion of meter gauge railway line to broad gauge including widening within RoW of existing meter gauge.
- (iii) Repair and maintenance of roads constructed on forest lands prior to 25th October 1980
- (iv) Approach/exit roads to petrol pumps etc.
- (v) Residential projects in forest lands
- (vi) Construction of residential buildings in private forests
- (vii) Non-site-specific projects like: Industries, residential colonies, institutes, disposal of fly ash and rehabilitation of displaced persons
- (viii) Ecotourism in Forest Areas
- (ix) School in hilly areas
- (x) Passenger Ropeways

11.2 Any proposal for linear projects such as roads, railway line, transmission lines, etc. need to be processed in their entirety for comprehensive assessment of requirement of forest land and consequences if approval for any forest land is not granted. No work on forest land shall be taken up unless diversion of forest land is ordered by the concerned State /UT Government after obtaining approval of the Central Government under the Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980.

Provided that consequent to grant of Stage I approval in respect of linear projects such as laying of new roads, widening of existing highways, transmission lines, water supply lines, optic fiber cabling, railway lines etc. by the Central Government under FCA, the State Government or a Senior Officer not below the Rank of a Divisional Forest Officer, having jurisdiction over the forest land proposed to be diverted, duly authorized in this behalf by the State Government can pass an order for tree cutting and commencement of work of a linear project in forest land for a period of one year.

Such orders shall be passed only after full realization of funds for compensatory afforestation, Net Present Value (NPV), wildlife conservation plan, plantation of dwarf species of medicinal plants, and all such other compensatory levies, specified in the Stage I (in-principle) approval from the UA, and where ever applicable, transfer and mutation of non-forest/ revenue forest land in favour of State Forest Department.

11.3 To facilitate phased preparation and processing, the proposals for such projects may be prepared Forest Division/ State-wise subject to submission of a map indicating alignment of the entire project, highlighting the portions passing through forest land, along with a write up on salient features of the entire project and details of approvals already obtained and/ or sought under the Act for other sections of the project.

Moreover, in case of linear projects involving both forest as well as non-forest land, work on non-forest land may be executed subject to submission of details of all stretches involving forest lands along with alternate alignments identified to bypass the forest land. To prevent occurrence of fait accompli situations, User Agency needs to undertake that in case diversion of forest land is denied, project shall be executed along alternate alignment and work on non-forest land shall not be cited as a reason for grant of approval of diversion of forest land under the Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980. Work on non-forest land will not confer any right on the User Agency with regard to grant of approval under the Act. Further, in case approval under the Act is declined for widening of road, width of the portion of road falling in the forest land will be maintained at its existing level.

The above facilitation is not applicable to the roads falling in the Protected Areas and the Eco-sensitive zones around the Protected Areas where impact on wildlife is to be considered.

11.4 Roads/Railways/Canals: Non-forest lands which were acquired by the concerned Government departments for construction of roads/railways/canals and the vacant areas in the Right of Way (RoW) were subsequently planted and notified as Protected Forests for management purposes will attract the provisions of Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980. Similarly, breaking of any land, recorded as forest, for conversion of meter gauge railway line to broad gauge railway line or road widening even if such forest land falls within the existing RoW will require prior approval of the Central Government under the FC Act, 1980.

11.5 Railway projects passing through the notified ESZ or located within 10 km radius of PAs (Protected Areas) or Tiger Reserves (TR) are not required to obtain Wildlife Clearance from the NBWL as these projects do not need Environment Clearance. However, railway projects passing through the areas linking one TR with another PA or TR diversion cannot be allowed for ecologically unsustainable use, except in public interest with the approval of NBWL on the advice of NTCA as provided under section 38 (O) (1) (g) of WLPA 1972

11.6 Repair and maintenance of roads constructed in forest lands: The up-gradation of roads, constructed in forest areas prior to 25th October 1980, from 'Kutch to Pucca' is permissible without attracting the provisions of FC Act, 1980 and black topping and bituminous work of forest roads (management works) which have been brought under Pradhan Mantri Gramin Sadak Yojana (PMGSY) is permitted subject to fulfillment of the following conditions:

- (a) Bitumen cold mix for black topping should be prepared outside the forest or at a site approved by the Divisional Forest Officer.
- (b) The user agency shall maintain the curves of the roads, inside the forest, and will not straighten the same.
- (c) The user agency shall install speed breakers and speed control signage at regular intervals to avoid accident with wild animals.
- (d) The user agency shall try to maintain the road surface as rough as possible to act as regular speed governor, even if it means going below the standards prescribed for the particular class of roads, the intention being only to make it an all-weather road.
- (e) The user agency shall provide side drains for proper drainage.

- (f) No tree felling is involved.
- (g) No widening of road should be undertaken without prior approval of the Central Government under the Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980

11.7 Approach/Exit Roads to Fuel stations for distribution of petrol, diesel, LPG, CNG etc.: Fuel stations should generally be part of rest area complex having other amenities like place for parking, toilets, restaurants, rest rooms, shops, etc. Proper planning should be done by the User Agencies, in advance, for construction of such complexes along the highways so that destruction of road side forests is minimized.

Requirement for diversion of forest land for construction of acceleration/de-acceleration lane and exit/entry opening shall be based on the approved layout plan provided in the extant guidelines issued by the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways in this regard.

However, if approach/exit road for a fuel station involves forest land already diverted for construction/widening of a road, fresh approval for re-diversion of such forest land for construction of approach/exit for fuel station will be required only if it involves clearing of or felling of any tree.

If two or more fuel station are to be constructed in close proximity or adjacent to each other for some reasons, diversion of forest land for a common access/exit shall only be approved.

11.8 Infrastructure ancillary to Forest Management: According to the explanation in the Act, any work relating or ancillary to conservation, development and management of forests and wildlife, namely, the establishment of check- posts, fire lines, wireless communications and construction of fencing, bridges and culverts, dams, waterholes, trench marks, boundary marks, pipelines or other like purposes, is not a non-forest use and therefore, taking up such work in the forest land does not require diversion under the FC Act. As such all States Government should ensure that the basic spirit and essence of the Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980 is not to divert forest land for construction of residential buildings, Bungalows, quarters etc. Bare minimum (operational) buildings, which are essential for management of forest and conservation of bio-wealth such as forest guard hut, check posts, range offices, small inspection bungalow (2-3 room), un-tarred single lane roads etc., can be taken up in selected areas without causing damage/destruction to the forests thereon. But if the structures are large and would impact on conservation, prior permission under the Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980 would be required.

11.9 Residential Projects: The Central Government will not entertain any proposal for diversion of forest land for construction of residential or dwelling houses. However, the Central Government has accorded permission for construction of residential houses in their private forests land for construction of residential or dwelling houses in the MDDA areas of Uttarakhand subject to fulfillment of following conditions:

- (a) Construction activity for residential purpose in private forest shall be allowed only for domestic purpose and shall not be extended to any institutional buildings or commercial development
- (b) The construction activities shall be restricted to a maximum of 250 square meter of built up area in each case.
- (c) The construction of residential building in private forest is permitted in MDDA areas and other parts of Uttarakhand State only in order to alleviate hardship of homestead owners for constructing/completing their bonafide residential buildings.

Above stipulation is strictly restricted to construction of residential or dwelling houses in private forest land in MDDA areas of Uttarakhand, where non-forest land is not available.

11.10 Eco-tourism: Construction of permanent structures for the purpose of ecotourism on forest land shall be considered as non-forestry activity. In such cases, prior approval of the Central Government under the Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980 is required.
