Dated...12/6/2025.....

Subject:- Undertaking Regarding CA cases by CEO, State Authority (CAMPA), in FCA cases

Your kind attention is solicited on the issue that while according stage-1 approval of FCA cases by the MoEF&CC, one of the conditions being stipulated is that Chief Executive Officer, State Authority CAMPA is required to give undertaking that "all levies realized from the user agency will be included in the corresponding APO of the State Authority, Punjab".

In this regard it is apprised that the Punjab Forest Department, has completed the reconciliation of project-wise compensatory afforestation against each proposal of forest land diversion since 1980 to 30.09.2024 and completed the reconciliation of 98.06 % of FCA cases.

It is further submitted that the State of Punjab has already completed 95.23 % CA against the stipulated CAs and the State of Punjab is already on course to complete all CA plantations. It is understood that above condition was laid to expedite CA plantations in the state. However, keeping in view the significant progress of the state of Punjab in carrying out CA plantations, it is requested that CEO, State Authority, Punjab may be exempted to give such undertakings while granting stage-1 approval.

Chief Executive Officer,
State Authority (CAMPA),
