Tigress T-117 spotted with 3 cubs in Dholpur forest area

She Had Given Birth To Two Cubs In 2021

One of the three cubs as seen on the trap camera set up in the forest

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Jaipur: Conservation efforts in the Dholpur forest area, which is set to become the state's sixth tiger reserve after approval from the National Tiger Conservation Authority (NTCA), have started yielding positive results. Tigress T-117 was successfully captured on a camera trap, along with her two cubs. For the second time, Ranthambore Tigress T-117 was spotted with her three cubs in the Sarumthura forest area, which she had been a home for nearly two-and-a-half years.

Tigress T-117 has a staff member sidekick in the forest. The tigress has been spotted in the forest.

The NTCA has granted preliminary approval for officially designating the Karundi-Sarumthura-Dholpur Tiger Reserve (DTR) after the proposal was submitted this year.

The forest department claims that the tigress has formed to decline boundaries, has effectively addressed the concerns raised by the NTCA. The expert committee has identified the core or critical zone of the tiger reserve.

According to the initial proposal, the tiger reserve will cover an area of 1,068 sq km, including a core area of 368 sq km and a buffer area of 699 sq km. The Karundi and Dholpur districts will contribute to the core area and the buffer zone. The tiger reserve will be located in the forest area of the Dholpur district.

Political leaders seek public support by prioritising wildlife protection

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Jaipur: In the election year, Rajasthan is witnessing a unique convergence of conservation and politics. Political leaders in the state are actively seeking public support by prioritising wildlife protection, particularly focusing on leopards and tigers.

Leopard reserves in the state have generated jobs in rural & urban areas. The government has initiated a public awareness campaign to highlight the importance of wildlife conservation.

Although an exact leopard count in the state remains unknown, the forest department estimates the population of leopards in Rajasthan to be around 1,000. The government has initiated a public awareness campaign to highlight the importance of wildlife conservation.

A senior forest official mentioned, "Fortunately, Rajasthan stands out as the only place where people actively support and demand conservation and tiger reserves, rather than opposing them. In today's time, villagers do not wish to invite legal trouble by harming animals. As the leopard population thrives, sightings have significantly improved the livelihoods of villagers in many regions. It is an excellent means for environmental to engage them in development."

Tigress T-117 spotted with 3 cubs in Dholpur forest area

One of the three cubs as seen on the trap camera set up in the forest

Jaipur: Conservation efforts in the Dholpur forest area, which is set to become the site of sixth tiger reserve after approval from the National Tiger Conservation Authority (NTCA), have started yielding positive results. Tigress T-117 was successfully captured on a camera trap, along with her three cubs, for the second time in Baramhore thicket. The tigress was spotted with her three cubs in the Sarmathura forest area, which she has been using as a home for nearly two years.

The NTCA has granted preliminary approval for officially designating the Karauli, Sarmathura, Dholpur, and Tiger Reserve (DTR) after the proposal was submitted this year. The forest department claims that the tigress, named T-117, has been born in the forest. It is likely that the tigress was born in the forest, which has been identified as the core of the proposed tiger reserve.

नजदीकी बनी संकेत

शेष है। इससे पहले राजस्थान में विधानसभा चुनाव होने है। केंद्रीय मंत्री भूपेंद्र यादव की अलवर जिले के भाजपा नेताओं व विधायकों से बढ़ती नजदीकी एवं किशनगढ़ बास, तिजारा, मुंडावर, बहरोड, बानसूर, अलवर, रामगढ़, राजगढ़, थानागाजी सहित विधानसभा क्षेत्रों में राज्यसभा सांसद निधि कोष से विकास कार्यों के लिए बजट आवंटन को होने वाले लोकसभा चुनाव की निगाहों से देखा जा रहा है। ऐसे में भूपेंद्र यादव यह भी चाहेंगे कि विधानसभा चुनाव में अलवर की 11 की 11 सीटें भाजपा जीते। जिससे होने वाले लोकसभा चुनाव में भाजपा को ऐतिहासिक जीत मिल सके।
