MEGHNA NATH

ACTIVE mobility is playing a key role in the city's development, as the State government is also encouraging active mobility by laying cycling tracks. Various cycling communities have joined hands to create awareness among people.

According to members of Hyderabad cycling community, the city is a rapidly growing with increasing mobility needs. "With the help of GHMC we are working towards promoting walking and cycling in the city. Till date around two lakhs of people are using bicycles for their daily commuting. Around 10,000 persons are using bicycles for fitness."

To motivate more larger communities for adopting active mobility, various awareness campaigns have been taken up. Speaking to The Hans India, Santhi Kumar, bicycle mayor of Hyderabad, said, "To promote active mobility we have planned Hyderabad Cycling revolution 3.0 where 4,000-5,000 cyclists will be on a single platform and will pedal in various streets across the city."

"We are doing various awareness programmes. In these two months we plan to involve 50 lakh people in the city. We are not forcing them to adopt active mobility; it's our first step towards spreading awareness. This ride will signify active mobility, which includes walking, cycling and public transportation (bus and Metro)."

Stretching on the Cycling tracks, he said, "State government is also encouraging people by laying cycle track, 90 km has been proposed for laying cycling track out of that 23 km cycling track is ready in the area of the Outer Ring Road (ORR).
