

Details of alternatives examined

The existence of potential coal resources have been established in the block area through regional exploration undertaken by GSI including the area covered by forest. The resources are to be brought to 'Proved' category through detailed exploration. As such, the examination of alternatives is not required