3	It is seen from the NPV calculation submitted now that the density is mentioned as 0.3 in Eco class- V but the NPV rate has been charged for dense forest category i.e. 8.45 lakh per ha instead of 6.57 lakh per ha applicable for 0.3 density i.e open forest. 4	It is seen from the land schedule that 1.5225 ha (1.0325 ha Civil Soyam land & 0.49 ha Van Panchayat land) is required for construction of road and another 0.27 ha land is require for muck dumping, making the total requirement of forest land as 1.7925 ha. But, the area of forest land required for construction of Road is mentioned as 1.2525 ha and the land required for muck dumping as 0.49 ha making the total as 1.7425 ha which has been proposed for diversion. Thus, the total forest land mentioned in the land schedule i.e. 1.7925 ha does not tally with the forest land mentioned in online Part-I & Part-II i.e. 1.7425 ha.
