S.no.	Observation	Reply
A. Compliance to REC Lucknow vide ref. no-1 dated 26th July 2017
1	The revised proposal has not been uploaded online on www.forestclearances.nic.in	Online proposal has been updated as per observations made by REC and compliance documents have also been submitted in Hard copy as additional document to forest proposal.
2	The land schedule submitted on page no. 38 & 39 does not provide balance of RoW duly deducting proposed forest width for diversion. Reasons for varying width at different chainage have not been explained in the proposal.	Area statement presenting balance RoW is attached as Appendix-I with this letter and same has been uploaded on online portal as additional document. Existing RoW varies from 12-30 & proposed COI varies; 12 m in settlement area and 20m in open/rural area. The varying width has been considered to minimize the R&R issue in settlement areas.
3	The georefernced map uploaded with the proposal does not provide geo-coordinated of all key points defining proposed forest diversion.	Revised Geo-referenced map is attached as Appendix-II with this letter and same has been uploaded on on online portal in designated section .
