Sr. No.	Observation	Reply
1	Trees proposed for felling is too high. Direct User Agency to reduce No. of trees felling.	In Reply to this observation User Agency has submitted that all feasible alternative alignments have been thoroughly examined with the objective of minimizing the diversion of forest land and the felling of trees. Initially the proposed alignment involved the felling of 934 trees. After detailed investigations, technical evaluation, and modification of the alignment, the number of trees proposed for felling has reduced to 445 trees, resulting in a reduction of 489 trees. The alignment has already been optimized to the maximum extent technically feasible. Further modification of the alignment is not possible due to site-specific topographical constraints, engineering requirement, safety considerations, and the non-feasibility of any other alternative route. User agency has further submitted that there is no further scope for reducing the number of trees in the proposed alignment. The present proposal represents the minimum tree felling required for the execution of the project while maintaining its technical viability and public
