S.No	EDS	REPLY
1	Vide point no-2 of the EDS it was required to provide breakup of forest land proposed for diversion in four villages mentioned in the villages wise breakup at B-2.3 part I online. Through in reply it is mentioned that village wise breakup details have been uploaded at B-2.3 part I online but still breakup of forest land in the four village has not found uploaded online at B-2.3 part I online.	Village wise breakup has been corrected and uploaded at part I B-2.3 of Form A villagers other than Mayali which were mentioned earlier were only being benefited by proposed. Forest land of these village will not be diverted for proposed road.
2	In reply to points no-5 of EDS dated 31-03-2016, it is mentioned that the muck is likely to be disposed in private land and NOC of the land owner Jaikrishan Saklani has been uploaded at additional documents at Sr.No-2 of part I online, However in the muck dumping plan uploaded in the additional documents at Sr.No-4 of part I online, it is mentioned that surplus muck is proposed to be dumped in another plot of private land owned by three land owners whose names are differenct and their NOC have also been provided. State Govt may specify actual site of muck dumping and delete the NOC not relevant to this case.	User agency has mentioned that the Corrected Muck disposal plan has been uploaded. Now all the Muck will be dumped in the private land of Mr Jai Krishna Saklani whos NOC is also uploaded at part I in additional information details SR.No-11.
3	Village level Committee meeting proceedings of FRA certificate are provided only Mayali village wise breakup at B-2.3 part – I online, May provide for these villages also.	User Agency mentioned that the villagers other than Mayali which are mentioned earlier was only being benefited by the proposed. Forest land of these villages will not be diverted for proposed road. hence VLC level committee proceedings are not required for these villages except Mayali.
4	Hard copy of the proposal submitted to this office contain all unattested phtocopies which is required as per recent instructions of MOEF &CC, New Delhi. May provide hard copy containing original or attested copies all documents. Excepted FRA certificate digital map of proposed road enumeration list of trees and part I, III, IV and V which are required in original.
