Respected Sir,

Sub: - Development of Devadari Iron Ore Mine, Sandur Taluk, Ballari Dist. -

CSR activities

Ref: Our letter No. 2328/CMD dated 15.02.2020 & No. 2398 dated 04.03.2020

At the outset, I convey my sincere thanks for your kind cooperation and valuable guidance on the captioned project.

With reference to the discussions, we had with the Hon'ble Minister of Forest, Govt of Karnataka at Karnataka Pollution Control Board Office on today, the 30th May 2020 regarding development of Devadari Mines allotted by Government, KIOCL would like to reiterate that it is committed to the principle of harmonious development and growth in all of its project area. Since inception the Company, it is continuously developing greenery in the State of Karnataka for which it planted about 7 million saplings and also adopted animals in Pilkula Zoo, Mangalore.

As discussed during the meeting, KIOCL is agreeable to develop forest corridor for easy movement of animals in the State of Karnataka to increase afforestation and animal population. Accordingly the Company would make endevour to spend total amount of Rs.50 Crores over a period of 10 years to develop the forest area in and around the proposed project. This would be done by spending an amount of Rs.10 crores during the first year after execution of the Mining Lease, followed by Rs.4-5 crores per annum in the next 9 years totaling to an amount of Rs.50 crores to develop the forest area in and around Sandur Region, Bellary Dt. as a part of its project cost

Hence, I request your kind support for early clearance of the proposed Mining project which would generate large employment, social development and support MSME sector etc. in the adjoining areas of the Project

Thanking you with kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(MV Subba Rao)
